

PORTUGAL

Portugal, a country bathed by the Atlantic Ocean, with a mild climate, has a unique cultural heritage. A nation with the oldest birders in Europe, it is attractive for your travels all year round.

From north to south, it offers the most varied landscapes, a past and a present history for an experience worth remembering.

Presidencial Tours accompanies you on your visit to Lisbon. Combining its ancient past with a cosmopolitan present, famous for its light, the city is located on the Tagus River.
